

Vox Portent Press release

Vox Portent, the DJ/artist hailing from Johannesburg, South Africa, has been steadily making waves in the industry with his unique sound and dynamic sets. Known for his distinct blend of electronic, hip hop, and global sounds, Vox Portent has gained a reputation as an artist to watch.

Recently, Vox Portent had the opportunity to tour with Morena Leraba, a contemporary artist from Lesotho. During this time, Vox Portent also produced music for Morena Leraba's latest EP "Fela Sa Ha Mojela", adding his signature sound to the project.

"Portent is a real whiz kid who creates the most gorgeous, ambient soundscapes that take the listener on an emotional journey. Similarly, songstress Tailor does the same with her brooding indie pop, the proof evident in her two successful releases to-date." Texx and The City Read Full Article here

In addition to his collaborations, Vox Portent runs his own record label called I Suppose Ja, which features artists such as FRNGE and Skinniez. Through his label, Vox Portent aims to provide a platform for emerging talent and to push the boundaries of South African music. Vox Portent's talents have also led him to perform at various events and festivals across South Africa, including Oppikoppi, Mielipop, Grietfest, and Wolfkop Weekender. He has even had the opportunity to open for respected artists such as Darkstar and Felix Leband.

To further share his knowledge and expertise, Vox Portent has taken part in multiple Ableton Live production workshops. These workshops have allowed him to share his production secrets with other aspiring producers, while also expanding his skills and knowledge in the field.

"The hypnotic contrast between Vox Portent's animated spirit and shamanistic-atmosphere ensues for a truly unique and refined experience."
